

The great gathering place- Tingvalls- located on the slope down towards Trehörningen and the Shire, where the camp is being built and when they are broken, all to take note of Ramunders police regulations, challenges and rewards for commendable deeds.

A lot happens during these summer days from early to late, from sunrise to the last camp-fire flame glow is fading and silence prevails, all during the night bird with soft wings makes his rounds of the now relatively quiet villages.

So begins a new day... Let us be with!
